

INTERESTING CASE.—Some time since, in removing some old paper and rubbish from the Citizens' Bank, a number of one dollar notes of the issue of that bank were thrown into the street, where they were found by some persons, who took possession of and disposed of them. It appears that several months previously the board of directors ordered that one thousand dollars of the notes be destroyed, and they were thrown into the fire-place and ignited, but before they were burned the chimney took fire, and the water thrown into the fire-place extinguished the flames and prevented the notes from destruction. Ten of the notes were taken by the party who found them to the banking house of P. Gover & Co., on Baltimore street, and in consequence of the ends being slightly burned, leaving the face of the notes and the signatures unimpaired, they were purchased for seven dollars. The notes were subsequently sent to the bank for redemption, but the cashier refused to redeem them. They were sent a second time to the bank, and the redemption was again refused, when the holders instituted suit before Justice Hiss, for the recovery of the amount. The case has just been tried, when the bank set up a defence that the notes had been ordered to be destroyed, and were, to all intents and purposes, destroyed. The plainiffs alleged that the bank is responsible for its issues, and that they cannot be held responsible for the negligence of the officers of the bank. The judgment of the magistrate will be rendered to-day, and if it shall be adverse to the bank, it is probable the matter will be appealed to a higher court.—[Balt. Sun.—The Justice yesterday gave judgment against the bank.]

Forty-four prisoners were before the United States Marshal in New York yesterday charged with running the blockade at Mobile, on board the steamers Alice and Crescent. They were brought to New York by the steamer Hendrik Hudson. Among the party are Major Borland, of General Slaughter's staff, a nephew of General Kirby Smith, and of Wm. Ballard Preston, of Virginia, and Carlo Patti, a brother of the charming Adelina. Such of them as are foreigners were discharged, and the remainder were sent to Fort Lafayette.

THOMAS CLEMENS.

Message of the Governor of Kentucky.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 1.—Governor Bramlette was inaugurated to-day. In his inaugural he contends that the Southern States did not change their status by seceding. All that is necessary is for them to return to their position as States; "The Rebellion did not remit them to a territorial condition."

He also says:—"We have now, and will have, when the Rebellion closes, the identical Constitution which the extremists seek to destroy—the one by innovation and the other by force. It is not a fettered Union—not a reconstructed Union—that Kentucky desires, but a preserved Union or a restored peace upon a constitutional basis."

The Governor strongly objects to the arming of negro regiments, and asks:—"What is to be done with such soldiers at the close of the war?"

He points to the result of the recent election as a proof that Kentucky will not fraternize with the Rebellion, either openly or covertly, and declares that "the State has ever been, is now, and always will remain loyal to the Government of our fathers."

Several Federal soldiers belonging to Kentucky regiments are to be shot at Munfordsville, Kentucky, next Friday. Their crime is desertion.
